

Allowing further consolidation of the media in the United States will have a detrimental effect on the citizens as it will limit the number of independent viewpoints that they are exposed to. I urge you to do what is best for the American public and do not vote to allow further consolidation.

Sincerely,

William A Hance
American Taxpayer